To: President of INTERNATIONAL KARATE ASSOCIATION POLAND

Mr. JACEK CHAŁUPKA

Dear Mr. President, the WUKF Executive Committee is very happy to announce you that your application for organizing the WUKF European Karate Championship 2024, 9-13 of October, in Pruszkow, was approved by unanimity. Also, at Pruszkow we shall organize the 3st Kobudo European Championship. The WUKF European Congress will be organized on 8th of October 2024, one-day prior of the starting of the championship.

It is quite a good opportunity for your federation to prove your excellent organizational capabilities and strength, we are sure that at Pruszkow will be a fantastic championship that will promote your federation and your country as well.

The previous events brought together almost 2000 participants, athletes, coaches and referees, and more than 4000 spectators from 26 European countries. I am sure that in Poland we will register the record of our European events ever. The participants will bring an important financial support to the city, so we are sure that the sport and local authorities will support this event.

In 2023 the evaluation of the World Championship in Dundee, made by a specialized company, brought 9.5 million Pounds, so more than 11 million Euro (World Karate Championships brought £9.5 million to Dundee economy \(thecourier.co.uk\))

The results of the inspections and validation of the well running of the preparations are very good, all tasks are fulfilled up to now.

I look forward for a successful organization of our top event for the first time in your beautiful country, Poland.

Best regards,

WUKF President

Prof.Dr. Liviu Crisan
